

Cluny, Taize, Cormatin, Tournus...

... a nice stroll in the Maconais region.

Departure at 08h00. we drive through the motorway till the south of Macon. We pass near the TGV station «Loche», then we reach the impressive rock «Roche de Solutre». We make a stop to let you admire walking till this prestigious prehistoric site. Near Solutre, you will enjoy a wine tasting in the Pouilly et Fuisse cellar, well known for its white wine production.

The visit streams down Lamartine, Milly and Cluny whose intellectual, religious and artistic influence overwhelmed the entire medieval Europe. Cluny universal repute is due to the remains of its benedictine abbey. Stop and possible guided tour.

Taize is graced with a carefully restored roman church. This little city was chosen to constitute an ecumenical community, and establish the church of reconciliation. We stop in this holy place which attracts believers from all over the world.

Lunch in the region

The «Chateau de Cormatin», enjoys a sumptuous external decor. The decoration inside is also very rich: painted and carved panellings, roofs in french style, paintings and furnitures of the time. visit is possible. Freetime is allowed to admire the gardens.

The itinerary leads to the midieval village of Briançon, proud of its stronghold.

the tour ends in Tournus. After a private freetime to discover the city and its church ST Philibert, we will be directly back by motorway.
